FAQ's

What is the maximum team/table size?

The maximum table size is 6. Smaller tables are most welcome and you can join together with others if you choose.

What's the prize?

The winning team will receive a £100 Funghi Club voucher (can be divided into smaller amounts).

Can I take cash instead?

No cash alternative is available.

Do I need to book or register my team in advance?

Teams should register in advance to secure their spot.

Can I use my phone?

No outside help (phones, iPads, etc.) is allowed—it's a quiz, not a race to see who can Google fastest.

What happens if I disagree with the answer?

The quizmaster's decision is final.

How difficult is the quiz?

The quiz consists of a range of questions, varying in difficulty. While many can be answered with basic general or food-related knowledge, some questions require more specialized understanding. There are also multiple categories to choose from, so if one category isn't your strong suit, you have the opportunity to earn points in other areas.

What time will it finish?

The quiz will last approximately 2 - 2 1/2 hours, with a short intermission.
